MUSTARD

Indian Cuisine is a combination of subtle tastes. Flavours are varied as the climate of India and as exotic as people of India. Fragrant spices, pungent & warm spices from the three countries of the continent are delicately blended in meticulous proportion to create the dishes we present to you. Each dish will have its own distinctive flavour & aroma. The blending & preparation of spices is a centuries old craft & indispensable to Indian Cuisine. We at the Agra take special pride in the fact that we are one of the pioneers of the authentic cooking. Our aim to provide a very high standard of food and service to our customers. All our staff have a thorough knowledge of all the food which we serve and they will be pleased to advice or guide you. Your meal will be cooked by experts in authentic cooking, well equipped with its Tandoori Clay oven. The chef will see to it that you don't have long to wait.
